Golden Valley Casino Wijnlander - Rules for 2010

Rules for ALL competitors:

1. The competition is played under the rules of the R&A of Scotland.
2. Participants must be a member of an official golf club and be in possession of an official handicap. No "virtual club" members may take part.
3. The overall Wijnlander champion will be decided over three days, namely Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Participants must take part in these three days to be eligible for the overall prize.
4. Participants may not nominate more than two players per four ball. The other two players in a four ball will be drawn.
5. The committee has the right to adjust any player's handicap during the tournament.
6. In the event of two more players tying a day, the club's normal count-out procedure will be followed to determine the winner.
7. Should two or more players tie for the overall prize, there will be a playoff according to the club's playoff competition rules to determine the winner.
8. Handicaps will be adjusted only according to individual scores and not on the four ball better ball day.
9. Scores played during the week will be entered into the computer only after the tournament to avoid confusion.
10. At the end of the week a Wijnlander champion and Wijnlander junior champion will be crowned. There will also be a prize for the Wijnlander team champions. A floating trophy is at stake in all three divisions.
11. A participant must attend the prizegiving in order to qualify for his prizes. Should a participant not receive his prize during the prizegiving on account of absence, the prize will go to the player in the next position. Nearest the pin and longest drive prizes not claimed will be forwarded to the club.

Sections:

Open section:
